National Women's History Museum

Mae Jemison Biography - National Women's History Museum

Mae Jemison ... As a doctor, engineer, and NASA astronaut, Mae Jemison has always reached for the stars.

MAE JEMISON

This week we look at a real adventurer: Mae Jemison

Mae has done many amazing things in her life, but perhaps the most amazing and important one is that she has been into space- she went on the space shuttle Endeavour in 1992. She was the first African-American woman astronaut. For this reason alone we can call Mae and adventurer, but she's done a lot more.

Mae was born in 1956 and when she was a child, she didn't know if she wanted to be a doctor or a dancer. She became a doctor, but she has also danced on stage and produced several stage shows of modern jazz and African dance.

Mae has travelled all over the world: she went to Kenya, Cuba and Thailand during her studies to be a doctor in the late 1970s. She left university in 1981 and in 1983 she became a member of the Peace Corps - that's an organization for young American people to help people in other countries. Mae worked in West Africa between 1983 and 1985 as a doctor. She has also worked as a general doctor in the United States and she joined NASA in 1987 and became an astronaut.

Not all of Mae's achievements are about hard work. She has written a book and she has also appeared in a television show - she was in an episode of Star Trek in 1993. She was the first astronaut to appear in the show!

PART B. FUTURE PLANS

My name is Lance and I am 15 years old. I am not sure what job I want when I am older, but I do know that I want to go to university. I am going to study English, Italian and Maths in Year 12& 13 and then go to a good university to study modern languages. Maybe I will become a famous writer or artist.

Hi, my name is Rosie. I am 17 years old. I am going to be a doctor when I am older. I love to study and will go to medical school when I am 20. Before this I am going to travel abroad, to Africa and India and work in hospitals to get some experience. I know it will be difficult, but I will be strong and won't get frightened or scared even if things get hard. I want to be the best!

When I am older I am going to travel more. I came to the UK from Italy when I was five and I will return there one day soon. As I am going to travel I will learn as many new languages as I can while I am at school. I really want to learn Chinese and Russian, but the school doesn't teach it at the minute, although the teachers say this will change soon! Sorry I forgot to say, my name is Laurent and I hope I will meet you on my travels in the future!

Answer these questions:

- Who is going to be a doctor?
- Which 2 students will learn new languages in the future?
- Will Laurent be able to learn Russian at school?
- Does Lance think he will become a dancer when he is older?
- How many students want to travel in the future?
